HACKNEY CARRIAGE FARES IN EDINBURGH.

61. The distance to which the owner or driver of a hackney carriage shall be bound to drive the same under these bye-laws is hereby fixed at eight miles from the Cross of Edinburgh, and the driver of a hackney carriage shall not at any time convey more than five adults in or on such carriage.

I.—FARES FOR HACKNEY CARRIAGES NOT FITTED WITH TAXIMETERS.

HORSE-DRAWN HACKNEY CARRIAGES:

FARES BY DISTANCE.

62. (1) The fares to be paid for the use of a hackney carriage not fitted with a taximeter under these bye-laws shall be fifty per cent. more than as shown in the annexed Table of Fares. The fares specified shall include ten minutes' waiting before starting, but if the carriage be detained before starting more than ten minutes a charge for waiting at the rate of 6d. for each quarter of an hour or part thereof after the expiry of the ten minutes shall be allowed. A charge of 6d. for every mile or part thereof shall be allowed for going to lift the party hiring, but this shall not apply to a carriage only called across the street from a stance.

(2) The fare for such hackney carriage hired from any place for which a waiting rank is appointed under these orders and bye-laws, or where on any occasion a temporary waiting rank is formed, shall be reckoned as from the nearest stance, when the same is within half a mile, otherwise the fare shall be computed according to section (6) of this bye-law.

(3) There shall be no charge for waiting while such hackney carriage is on the way to a destination unless the waiting before starting and the waiting by the way exceeds in all ten minutes, and when such waiting exceeds ten minutes it shall be charged for in terms of section (1) of this bye-law. There shall be no charge for a short deviation from the direct route.

(4) The fare to any place not mentioned in the Table shall be the same as to any place mentioned therein which is in the immediate vicinity.

(5) In the event of any new stance being appointed during the currency of these regulations, the fares from said new stance shall be the same as from the stance nearest to it, when the same is within half a mile.

(6) When the fare to any particular place not mentioned cannot be ascertained by reference to a place in the immediate vicinity, the fare for such hackney carriages for any distance not exceeding a mile and a quarter shall be as follows, viz. :—

For any number of passengers not exceeding four	1s. 6d.
For every additional half mile or part thereof	9d.

For five passengers an extra 6d. shall be added to the total fare.

(7) When the party returns only half fare shall be payable, and the carriage shall wait ten minutes without any charge for waiting; if the carriage be detained longer, a charge shall be allowed for waiting, at the rate of 6d. for every quarter of an hour or part thereof, commencing when the free waiting expires.

(8) When such hackney carriage is called but not used, a charge of 6d. shall be allowed if the place to which it is called be under half a mile from the stance or stable, and 1s. if beyond that distance. Waiting shall be charged for as under section (1) of this bye-law.

(9) On Sundays, for any such hackney carriage hired from a stable or elsewhere than on the public streets or stances in the city an extra charge of 1s. shall be payable in addition to any charge for going to lift under section (1) of this bye-law.

HORSE DRAWN HACKNEY CARRIAGES: FARES BY TIME.

63. (1) The hirer may engage a hackney carriage not fitted with a taximeter by time when the same is to be used within the municipal bounds, for SHOPPING, MAKING CALLS, and the like, where the driving is not continuous, and does not exceed two-thirds of the time during which the carriage may be engaged. The fare in such a case shall be 4s. for the first hour or part thereof for any number of passengers not exceeding four, and 1s. for every additional fifteen minutes or part thereof. When five passengers are driven 6d. extra shall be allowed on the total fare. When the carriage is discharged at a greater distance than a mile from the point where the same was engaged, a charge shall be allowed for returning thereto at the rate of half the distance fare.

(2) For an AIRING into the country within five miles from the Cross of Edinburgh, and returning, or for continuous driving within the municipal bounds, in such hackney carriage, the fare shall be 6s. for the first hour or part thereof, and 1s. 6d. for every additional quarter of an hour or part thereof. Unless the hirer wishes a slower pace, the rate of driving when a carriage is engaged by time shall be at least six miles an hour; and in the event of the driving being at a slower pace than six miles an hour, contrary to the wish of the hirer, it shall be optional for the hirer to pay the fare at the rate of 6s. for the first six miles so travelled and 1s. for each mile thereafter. The above rate is for four passengers. When five passengers are driven 6d. extra shall be added to the total fare.

(3) Notice of the intention to hire by time must be given by the hirer at the commencement of the engagement, otherwise the fare shall be charged by distance. A charge of 6d. for every mile or part thereof shall be allowed for going to lift the party hiring, but this shall not apply to a carriage only called across the street from a stance. On Sundays for any such hackney carriage hired from a stable or elsewhere than on the public streets or stances in the city an additional charge of 1s. shall be payable.

FARE AND HALF.

64. There shall be no additional charge when two horses are used by the owner without being required to do so; but if two horses be used at the request of a hirer, the charge shall be fare and a half.

LUGGAGE.

65. The hirer of a hackney carriage shall not be charged for luggage under 100 lbs. in weight, but where it exceeds that weight a charge of 6d. shall be allowed, and in no case shall a driver be bound to convey more than 1 cwt. of luggage. A charge of 6d. shall be allowed for the carriage of a bicycle, mail-cart, or perambulator. The driver shall assist in loading and unloading luggage in all cases when required, but shall not be compelled to leave the immediate proximity of his hackney carriage in doing so.

II.—FARES FOR HACKNEY CARRIAGES FITTED WITH TAXIMETERS.

MOTOR HACKNEY CARRIAGES.

66. The fare to be paid by any number of passengers not exceeding four for the use of a motor hackney carriage fitted with a taximeter recording the fare by time or distance or by a combination thereof shall be as follows, viz. :—

For a distance not exceeding one mile, or for a period of time not exceeding twenty minutes	1s. 6d.
For every additional eighth of a mile or part thereof, or for an additional period of time not exceeding two and a half minutes	2d.

67. No fare shall be payable for the return of a motor hackney carriage from the place at which it is discharged

EXTRAS.

68. In addition to the above the following charges shall be payable :—

For a fifth passenger	6d.
Luggage—
For each bicycle, mail-cart, or perambulator	6d.

Houses, etc.—

Assessable value up to £40—one-fourth.
,, £40 to £50—£10.
,, £50 to £100—one-fifth.
,, over £100—£20+one-sixth of the excess over £100.

SCHEDULE B, in respect of the occupation of lands, tenements, and heritages (other than dwelling-houses distinct from farms and buildings occupied for trades or professions). The charge is on the annual value except in the case of lands not occupied only or mainly for the purposes of husbandry when it is on one-third of the annual value.

Farmers may elect to be assessed under Schedule D or where assessed under Schedule B claim relief if their profits fall short of the annual value. Relief in respect of losses in farming may be claimed within one year of the end of the year of assessemnt.

The charge under Schedules D and E is generally on the amount of the income of the previous year, but may, under the provisions applicable to commencement and cessation, be reduced to the income of the actual year in the first three years and the last year, and increased to the actual income in the second last year.

Weekly Wage Earners employed by way of manual labour are charged each half year on the actual wages of the half year.

RETURNS.—Returns of income must be made when demanded, and employers must make returns of salaries, etc., paid to employees, under penalty.

HUSBAND AND WIFE have their income aggregated for the ascertainment of the tax payable, but may claim to have the total tax charged in separate portions.

SMITH & COMPY 1780 1930

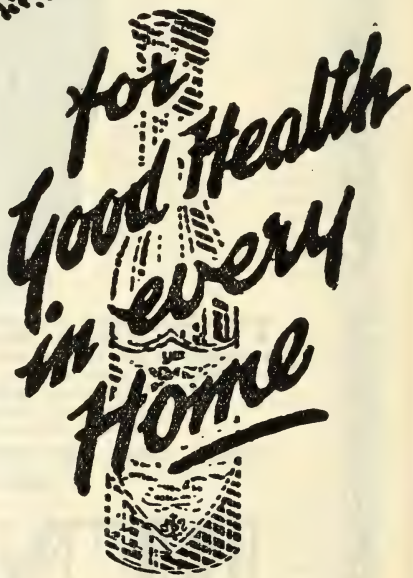
FOR DELICATE THROATS & CHESTS

THE soothing effect of these pastilles is most pleasing. They are excellent for delicate throats and chests, and can be taken with advantage by both children and adults. Particularly at this time of the year they are of great service.

Containing the following active ingredients :—

Thymol, Glycerine, Terebene, Menthol, Eucalyptus, Gaultheria, Guaiacol, Norwegian Pine and Extract of Licorice.

SPECIAL CHEST AND THROAT PASTILLES FOR THIS WINTER.



1/- per tin. Ask your Chemist for them.

BENOIDS

Prepared by SMITH & CO., 132 BOROUGH, LONDON, S.E.1.

"PRIMROSE" OLIVE OIL

Olive Oil is recommended for toning up the system and nourishing the tissues. But it is of little avail when the oil taken is of the lower grades commonly sold. An easy way to make certain that the oil will have the desired results is to ask for "PRIMROSE" OLIVE OIL and accept no other. The difference in quality and flavour is wonderful.

In 10½d, 1/3, 2/3 and 4/- bottles, of chemists or direct. Unrivalled as a food-laxative for young and old; delicious with salads, too.

RATES OF POSTAGE AND CONDITIONS OF TRANSMISSION.

INLAND SERVICES.

LETTERS.

Not exceeding 2 oz. . . . . 1½d.
For every additional 2 oz. or less . . . ½d.

A letter posted unpaid is chargeable on delivery with double postage; and if insufficiently prepaid with double the deficiency.

N.B.—Every letter should bear the name and address of the sender in order to ensure its return in case of non-delivery.

No letter may exceed 2 feet in length, 18 inches in width, and 18 inches in depth, or, if made up in the form of a roll, 3 feet 3 inches for the length and twice the diameter combined, and 2 feet 8 inches for the greatest dimension.

POST-CARDS.

* The prepaid rate of postage on every post-card is one penny. A post-card if posted unpaid is charged on delivery with double postage; if posted underpaid, with double the amount of the deficiency.

 The rates of postage in the Irish Free State differ from those in force in the United Kingdom.

The prepaid rate of postage on every reply post-card is twopence.

The material for private cards to be used as post-cards must be ordinary cardboard or paper not less than $\frac{1}{100}$ inch thick and not more flexible than the post-cards issued and sold by the Postmaster-General. No card may exceed 5¾ inches in length by 4¼ inches in width, or be less than 4 inches in length by 2¾ inches in width.

Nothing may be attached to a post-card except—

(a) Stamps in payment of postage or stamp duty;
(b) A label or a slip to fold back completely adherent to the card, and bearing the name and address of the person to whom the card is sent;
(c) A similar label (not to exceed 2 inches long and ¾ inch wide) bearing the name and address of the sender of the card; and
(d) Engravings, drawings, photographs, and printed matter, on very thin paper and completely adherent to the card.

A post-card may not be folded, nor may it be cut or altered in such a way as to reduce the size below 4 inches by 2¾ inches. A post-card may not be fastened against inspection in any way, or enclosed in a cover of any kind.

If any of the foregoing rules be infringed, the card will be treated as a letter.

The articles specified in paragraphs (c) and (d) may be affixed either to the back of the card or to the left-hand half of the address side. The right-hand half of the address side is reserved exclusively for the postage stamp and the address. Contravention of this regulation may result in the card being withheld from delivery.

PRINTED PAPERS.

For every 2 oz. or fraction thereof up to a maximum of 2 lb. . . . . ½d.

But any printed paper prepaid one halfpenny only and intended for despatch on the day of posting must be posted not later than 4.30 p.m. in London, or in the Provinces not later than such hour as is announced at the local Post Office. The minimum rate of postage for all packets sent at the printed paper rate and intended for despatch by the night mail is one penny if posted after the specified time.

BUSINESS REPLY CARDS AND ENVELOPES.

Description.

Under this service a person, who wishes to obtain a reply from a client without putting him to the expense of paying postage, may enclose in his communication an unstamped reply card, envelope or folder. The client can post the card, envelope or folder in the ordinary way without a stamp; and the addressee will pay the charges on all the replies he receives. Delivery will normally be effected once daily, by the second distribution.

Conditions.

(1) Before any person uses reply cards, etc., under this system, he must obtain a licence from the local Postmaster.

(2) The licensee will be required to pay in advance a sum of money (not less than 10*s.*) sufficient to cover the probable amount of the charges which will accrue during a reasonable period, and when the sum so paid is exhausted the licensee will be required to make a further payment to renew his credit. (See P.O. Guide.)

INLAND POST—SAMPLES.

Postage and Definition.

The Prepaid rate on Sample Packets is :—

Not exceeding 4 oz. in weight . . 1d. (minimum charge)
Between 4 oz. and 6 oz. . . . 1½d.

The use of the Sample Post is restricted to bona fide Trade Samples; and no article is admissible unless it be in fact a specimen of goods for sale. The specimen must be in itself without saleable value. The Sample Post must not be used, in any circumstances, for the conveyance of goods for sale or consigned in execution of an order (however small the quantity) sent from a dealer to an actual, or possible, purchaser, or for the transmission of articles from one private person to another. (See P.O. Guide.)

NEWSPAPERS.

The prepaid rate of postage on all papers registered at G.P.O. for transmission at the Inland Newspaper rate, including any supplements thereto, is as follows :—

For every additional 6 oz. or less . . . ½d.

If two or more copies are enclosed in a single packet, each copy will be liable to the same postage as if posted separately.

No copy of a newspaper sent by post at the Newspaper Rate may bear anything (not being part of the newspaper) except the name, address, and description either of the sender or of the addressee or both, with index or reference numbers and letters; the words 'With Compliments'; a request for return in case of non-delivery; the title of the newspaper, and a reference to its registration for transmission by post; and a reference to any place in the newspaper to which the attention of the addressee is directed. The same regulations apply to any cover enclosing a copy of a newspaper.

They should bear on the outside the inscription, 'Literature for the Blind,' and the written or printed name and address of the sender. If posted in a cover, it should be open at both ends, which can easily be removed for the purpose of examination.

PARCEL POST.

In order that a packet may go by Parcel Post it must be tendered for transmission as a parcel, and should bear the words 'Parcel Post.' It is also desirable that the sender's name and address should appear either inside the parcel or on the cover. In the latter case it must be kept distinct from the address to which the parcel is sent. The parcel should not be left until the weight, size, and postage have been tested by the officer who accepts it. The stamps should be affixed by the sender.

EXPRESS SERVICES.

The following services are provided by the Post Office :—

Express throughout (Local Service).

The charge is 6d. for every mile or part of a mile from the Office of delivery to the address. If the sender desires, a cab or other special conveyance may be used throughout, the actual fare or cost of the conveyance must be paid in addition to the mileage fee.

When several packets are tendered by one sender for delivery by the same Messenger at different addresses, or to different persons at the same address, the Express Fee of 6d. a mile will be charged for the full distance to be traversed by the Messenger up to the delivery of the last packet, and an additional fixed charge of 1d. for each article above one. The sender may determine the order in which the packets are to be delivered.

All charges must be prepaid in postage stamps, to be affixed to a form provided by the Post Office for the purpose.

A packet can be given express delivery after transmission by ordinary post and receipt at the Post Office (if that office is a Telegraph Office) from which it would ordinarily be delivered. The packet is despatched from the Office of posting by the next ordinary mail despatch and receives no express treatment until it reaches the office of delivery, when it is taken out from the rest of the mail and delivered by special messengers if it is received on a week-day at a time when such messengers are available.

The word 'Express' must be boldly and legibly written above the address on the left-hand side of the cover (whether of Letter or Parcel), and in the case of a Letter the cover must also be marked with a broad perpendicular line from top to bottom, both on front and back.

Reply and Further Service.

On the delivery of an Express Packet the Messenger may be asked to perform a further service, as in respect of a packet sent by Express Messenger throughout.

By Special Messenger after Receipt at Office of Delivery, at request of Addressee.

Persons or Firms who desire at any time to receive postal packets of any kind addressed to them in advance of the ordinary delivery or after the general delivery on public holidays when the office is open may have them delivered by Special Messenger on payment of the following fees, viz. :—

The full Express Fee of 6d. a mile as for one packet and a further fixed charge of 1d. for every 10, or less number, of additional packets beyond the first. If a special conveyance is found to be necessary the cost of such conveyance must be paid for. If more than one search is necessary a charge of 3d. is made for each extra search in addition to the Express fees levied when the special delivery takes place.

Applications for special delivery must be signed by the persons to whom the postal packets are addressed. Forms of application may be obtained at most Post Offices. Application may also be made by telephone.

The application should be addressed to the Postmaster or Chief Officer on duty at the Post Office from which the Letters are ordinarily delivered. Where possible, it should be delivered at the Office by hand; but where this cannot be done it may be handed in at any Post Office or posted in any Letter Box in the District served from the Office. In either of the latter cases, the postage should be prepaid by means of a three-halfpenny stamp affixed to the outside of the form. The application should, however, reach the Office on the previous evening, if it is intended to apply to the early delivery in the morning, and, if to any other delivery, an hour at least before the time at which the delivery commences.

The Express Fee on at least one packet must be prepaid in stamps affixed to the application form. All additional Fees must be paid to the Special Messenger on delivery.

Local Service.—At the General Post Office, and at the undermentioned Branch and Sub-Offices, letters, parcels, etc., are accepted for immediate delivery by Express Messenger in any part of Edinburgh and Leith or suburbs.

From the General Post Office, Edinburgh, delivery is effected at all hours day and night, except between 11.30 p.m. on Saturdays and midnight on Sundays. From 10 p.m. till 7 a.m. on week-days letters should be handed in at the North Bridge entrance.

Letters, etc., for Express Delivery from the General Post Office, may also be handed in at any of the other Local Offices, but the delivery will be less expeditious in these cases, inasmuch as the articles have first to be conveyed by ordinary collection to the G.P.O., from which they are expressed to destination. Thus an express letter or parcel handed in at Fountainbridge Post Office before 10.50 a.m. will reach the G.P.O. at 11.30 a.m., and delivery by Express Messenger will immediately follow.

The Express Service may also be used for obtaining letters in advance of the ordinary deliveries by Postmen.

Railex Service.

Under this service (week-days only) during the hours when messengers are on duty, any Post Office which is an Express Delivery Office will accept an unregistered packet, convey it to the appropriate Railway Station, dispatch it by train to a Station in Great Britain (including Jersey, Guernsey, and Douglas, Isle of Man) or Northern Ireland. A messenger will meet the train and deliver the packet to its address provided it arrives during the hours when messengers are on duty. Charge for weight not exceeding 2 oz. is 2s. 6d. Over 2 oz. but not exceeding 1 lb. (maximum), 3s.

Railway Parcels.

A parcel intended for transmission by railway may be handed in at an Express Delivery Post Office for immediate conveyance by a Post Office Messenger to a Railway Station for dispatch by train on payment of the Express Fee of 6d. a mile, together with the cost of a special conveyance if necessary. If the messenger is kept waiting at the Station for more than 10 minutes in disposing of the parcel, the Sender will become liable for the waiting fee of 2d. for each 10 minutes or portion thereof beyond the first 10 minutes.

A Railway Parcel must contain nothing in the nature of a letter.

The Sender may also pay the amount of the Railway charges for the conveyance of the Parcel, and the Messenger will hand the sum received to the servant of the Railway Company.

The Sender may also arrange by telegram for a Post Office Messenger to meet the train at the Station of Arrival and deliver the parcel.

Railway Letters for Places in Eire.

Railway letters will be accepted for transmission to Stations in Eire on the following Railways :—County Donegal; Dundalk, Newry, and Greenore; Great Northern (Ireland); Great Southern Railways; Londonderry, Lough Swilly, and Letterkenny; Sligo, Leitrim, and Northern Counties. In addition to postage at the appropriate rate a railway fee of 4d. is charged upon each railway letter sent to a station in Eire, except that in the case of letters addressed to the following ports the railway fee is 3d. :—Cork, Drogheda, Dublin, Dundalk, Dun Laoghaire, Greenore, Rosslare Harbour, Waterford.

The arrangements described above for meeting at the station of arrival by Post Office messenger and for Express Delivery from the station of address are not applicable to railway letters sent to stations in Eire, which must be addressed to a Passenger Station to be called for or to the actual residence of the addressee, with the addition of the name of the Railway Station to which the letter is to be transmitted. Express Delivery is undertaken from the usual Delivery Office without further charge.

The limits of size are generally 3½ feet in length, breadth, or depth, and 6 feet in length and girth combined. Any exceptions to these limits are shown in the Table against the country concerned.

The limit of weight in the Imperial and Foreign Parcel services is indicated in the Table. See Post Office Guide. Parcels not exceeding 15 lbs. in weight are accepted at all the more important offices throughout the country. Parcels exceeding 15 lb. in weight are accepted at the London Chief Office, London District Offices, and provincial Head Offices and at certain selected Branch Offices and Sub-Offices, but in some instances only during restricted hours or under other special conditions. Imperial and Foreign parcels may not be accepted by Postmen or Mail Cart Drivers in Rural Districts.

For method of address : The address should be written on the parcel itself, and not merely on a label. If the wrapper is of such a nature as to render impracticable the writing of the address on the cover of the parcel, a label of linen or other suitable material should be sewn on or otherwise securely affixed. In their own interests, senders should avoid labels which are liable to become detached during transit, such as tie-on labels, and paper labels of poor quality gummed to wrappers of canvas or similar fabric. It is recommended that a copy of the name and address of the sender and of the addressee be enclosed in every parcel addressed to a place abroad.

Imperial and Foreign parcels cannot be registered, but they may be insured under the conditions specified in P.O. Guide. No compensation is paid for damage to an article inadequately packed.

Customs Declaration and Despatch Note.

The sender of a parcel is required to make, for Customs purposes abroad—upon a special form or forms, which can be obtained at a Post Office—an accurate declaration of the nature and value of the contents and other particulars. The form or forms should be filled up in ink. Two forms of Customs Declaration are in use according to the service by which the parcel is to be sent, see P.O. Guide, viz. (1) an adhesive form, to be affixed to the parcel ; and (2) a non-adhesive form, of which in many services more copies than one are required.

INSURANCE OF PARCELS.

General Regulations.

Insured articles have all the safeguards of the registration system ; and, subject to the following regulations, compensation will be paid if an insured article or any part of its contents is lost or damaged in the post.

An insured article may not be addressed to initials or in pencil.

It may not bear any erasure or correction in the address at the time of posting.

A certificate of posting must always be obtained by the sender. Particulars of the amount for which the letter, box, or parcel has been insured should be entered on the certificate, and the sender should at once satisfy himself that the entry is correct. He may obtain an advice of the delivery of an insured letter, box, or parcel, under the conditions shown in P.O. Guide.

All the seals on an insured letter, box, or parcel must be of the same kind of wax (or lead or steel in the case of parcels), and must bear distinct impressions of the same private device. A coin may not be used for sealing; and the device may not consist merely of straight, crossed, or curved lines which could readily be imitated.

If an article tendered for insurance does not, in the opinion of the officer of the Post Office to whom it is tendered, fulfil the foregoing conditions as to packing and sealing, it is his duty to refuse to insure it. Nevertheless, the onus of properly enclosing, packing, and sealing the packet lies upon the sender; and the Post Office assumes no liability for loss arising from defects which may not be observed at the time of posting.

REGULATIONS AS TO PREPAYMENT, REGISTRATION, ETC.

MODES OF PREPAYMENT.

Inland letters, newspapers, and book packets can only be prepaid by means of postage stamps, except at the General Post Office, Edinburgh, Hope Street, George Street, and Leith, where inland letters, post-cards, book packets, and parcels may, from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m., Monday to Friday, and 9 till 12 noon on Saturday, be prepaid in money, provided the amount be not less than 10s., and that the letters and halfpenny packets be tied in separate bundles of 5s. each, with the addresses arranged in the same direction.

REGISTRATION (INLAND AND FOREIGN).

Letters, etc., must be prepaid as regards both postage and registration fee; except official letters for Government Offices in London, Dublin, or Edinburgh, which may be registered on prepayment, in stamps, of the registration fee only.

The fee chargeable for registration to places abroad is 3d.; and to some foreign countries a letter can be registered only to the port of arrival, it being left to the postal authorities of the country to which that port belongs to continue the registration or not as they may think proper.

Instructions for Registering.

Anything intended for registration must be handed to an Officer of the Post Office, and a certificate of posting, bearing an acknowledgment that the fee for registration and compensation has been paid, must be obtained. Nothing intended for registration should be dropped into a letter-box, and anything so posted bearing the word 'Registered,' or any other word, phrase, or mark to the like effect (e.g., any abbreviation of the word 'Registered,' the letter 'R', or a rectangular cross), will be compulsorily registered.

Latest Time for Registering.

A postal packet can be registered at any time during the ordinary hours of business. When intended for despatch by a particular mail it should, as a rule, be presented for registration half an hour before the latest time of posting for that mail. At the Chief Office in Edinburgh and at all Provincial Head Offices, articles bearing a late fee of 6d., in addition to the ordinary registration fee, may be registered at any time within the half-hour referred to, if the office is open to the public.

Advice of Delivery of Registered Postal Packets.

The sender of any registered postal packet may arrange at the office of posting, either at the time of posting or subsequently, for an advice of its delivery to be sent to him. The fee is 3d., which is payable by means of stamps affixed by the sender to a form provided for the purpose.

Enquiry as to the alleged loss or non-delivery of a registered packet must also be accompanied by a fee of 3d., and should, if possible, be made upon the form used in applying for an advice of delivery. If it is found that the Post Office is in fault the enquiry fee will be refunded.

INLAND REGISTRATION AND COMPENSATION.

The ordinary registration fee for each inland letter, parcel, or other postal packet is 3d., exclusive of postage. With a further 3d. the sender may obtain advice of delivery.

Inland packets marked ' Registered ' or containing coin or jewellery, if found in a letter-box, undergo compulsory registration (6d.), carrying no compensation.

Compensation for Loss or Damage.—These fees (which in each case include the ordinary registration fee of 3d.), and the respective limits of compensation, are as follows:—3d. on £5, 4d. on £20, and so on at the rate of 1d. for every additional £20, up to a limit of 1s. 11d. for £400. These fees relate to Inland Post only.

General Rules.

Unless the contrary is specifically stated, the following rules apply equally to Registered Postal Packets, Unregistered Parcels, and Express Postal Packets.

The Postmaster-General must be satisfied that the loss or damage occurred in the post, and did not arise wholly or in part by the fault of the sender, as, for instance, from insufficient packing, inadequate fastenings, detachment of ' tie-on ' label, incomplete or incorrect address, etc.

The compensation paid will not exceed the value of the article lost or the amount of the damage sustained. The right is reserved of reinstating the contents of a packet instead of paying compensation.

In the case of damage or loss of contents the packet should be retained for inspection as nearly as possible in the state in which it was delivered. If complaint be made that the contents of a packet have been abstracted, the cover must be produced.

In the case of Bank Notes, Currency Notes, Money and Postal Orders, Cheques, Bonds, and similar documents, particulars sufficient for their identification must be furnished.

No compensation either for loss or for damage is paid in respect of a packet containing anything not legally transmissible by post or of a packet not posted in the manner prescribed.

No compensation is paid in respect of damage to any packet (whether sent by Letter or by Parcel Post) containing eggs, soft fruit, any liquid or semi-liquid, or any article which is composed, wholly or in part, of an exceptionally fragile or brittle material, or which from its nature or construction is peculiarly liable to damage, however carefully it may be packed. No compensation either for loss or for damage is paid in respect of a packet sent by Letter Post and containing eggs, fish, game (including rabbits), meat, fruit, or vegetables.

No compensation is paid for injury or damage consequential upon the loss, damage, delay, non-delivery, or mis-delivery of anything sent by post.

The onus of making up properly any packet sent by post, and of packing adequately any article or articles enclosed therein lies upon the sender; and the Post Office does not accept responsibility for any failure to observe defects in this respect at the time of posting.

Without prejudice to any of the preceding rules, the Postmaster-General will, if he thinks fit, refuse to pay compensation for loss or damage on any ground on which a common carrier might in like case claim exemption from legal liability.

The Postmaster-General is not legally liable for the loss, damage, delay, non-delivery, or mis-delivery of anything sent by post; and the final decision upon all questions of compensation rests with him.

In the Rules as to Registration and Compensation—

The term ' money ' means and includes—

(a) Coin; (b) Paper money.

The term ' coin ' means and includes coins of all kinds, whether or not current in the United Kingdom or elsewhere.

The term ' paper money ' means and includes:

(a) Notes of the Bank of England or Bank of Ireland, or of any bank of issue in the United Kingdom, Currency Notes, and notes current in any British Possession or Foreign State;

(b) Money orders and postal orders;

(c) Unobliterated postage or revenue stamps;

(d) Exchequer bills, bank post bills, bills of exchange, promissory notes, cheques, credit notes which entitle the holder to money or goods, and all orders and authorities for the payment of money, whether negotiable or not; Bonds, coupons, and securities for money whether negotiable or not.

The term ' jewellery ' means and includes—

(a) Gold, silver or platinum or other precious metal in a manufactured state; that is to say, a state in which value is added to the raw material by skilled workmanship, and in this definition are included any coins used or designed for purposes of ornament.

(b) Diamonds and precious stones,

(c) Watches, the cases of which are entirely or mainly composed of gold, silver, or platinum or other precious metal; and

(d) Any article of a like nature which, apart from workmanship, has an intrinsic or marketable value.

RE-DIRECTION.

All letters containing instructions as to the re-direction of letters, etc., should have written on the envelope 'Re-direction of Letters.' Such an intimation will cause the communication to be attended to at once.

The Post Office does not undertake the re-direction of letters, etc., for a person temporarily leaving his home, unless the house be left uninhabited, or of letters, etc., addressed to clubs, hotels, boarding-houses, or lodgings; or addressed to any premises occupied by two or more persons where the letters are delivered by postman into a common letter-box or to a common agent.

Letters, post-cards, printed papers, and newspapers are not liable to additional postage for re-direction, whether re-directed by an officer of the Post Office or by an agent of the addressee after delivery, provided that the letters are re-posted not later than the day (Sundays and public holidays not being counted) after delivery, and that they do not appear to have been opened; but if re-posted later than the day after delivery, are charged at the prepaid rate. Any which appear to have been opened will be charged as unpaid letters or packets.

Parcels are, when re-directed, liable to additional postage at the prepaid rate for each re-direction. But re-directed parcels are not subjected to additional postage if the original and corrected addresses are both within a delivery from the same Post Office, and that the re-direction is made within the period of free re-direction allowed for other classes of correspondence.

A registered letter or packet, when re-directed, must not be dropped into a letter-box, but should be taken back to the Post Office to be dealt with as a registered letter. No additional registration fee will be charged if the correspondence is presented for re-registration not later than one day after delivery; but if it is presented after that time it will be treated as freshly posted, and a fresh registration fee will be payable.

Notices of removal and applications for re-direction of letters, etc., must in all cases be duly signed by the persons to whom the letters are addressed; printed forms of notice can be obtained at the local office and the General Post Office, or from the postman. A separate notice must be filled up for parcels and telegrams. Persons who are about to change their residence should inform their correspondents beforehand of their intention.

When business premises are temporarily left unoccupied—as, for example, during local holidays—re-direction is only undertaken on payment of a fee of 5s. for each period. Re-direction of letters for the first year after removal is undertaken free. For re-direction during the second and third year after removal a fee of 1s. a year is charged for each name recorded, and 5s. a year thereafter for each name recorded.

Imperial and Foreign.—The principle of free re-direction, which is adopted throughout the Postal Union for letters, post-cards, commercial papers, printed papers, and sample packets, does not exempt from additional postage letters, etc., which, though fully prepaid for the first transmission, are re-directed to a country to which the postage is higher than that originally prepaid. Thus a letter or packet prepaid at the inland rate, sent from one place to another in the United Kingdom and afterwards re-directed to a place abroad, should have additional stamps affixed to it representing the difference between the inland and the foreign rate of postage, otherwise the difference will be charged on delivery. The same treatment would be adopted with a letter or packet fully prepaid for the inland service of a foreign country or colony and re-directed to this country. On a letter from abroad re-directed from this country the postage has to be brought up to what it would have been if the letter had been sent direct to its final destination in the first instance. A letter originally posted unpaid, or a packet of any kind posted insufficiently paid, and subsequently re-directed, though not chargeable for re-direction, is subject to surcharge on delivery. In the case of air mail packets for which re-transmission by air is desired the appropriate air postage for the second transmission must be prepaid.

A packet which appears to have been opened or tampered with will be chargeable as freshly posted and unpaid.

Whenever it may be thought necessary, a receipt may be required from the addressee of a re-directed letter or packet at the second address.

Letters for officers and other ranks of H.M. Forces on actual service are exempt from any charge for re-direction.

A packet returned to the sender that he may rectify or complete the address is not, when re-posted, treated as re-directed, but is liable to fresh postage.

A registered letter or packet, on being re-directed, may not be dropped into a Letter Box, but must be taken to a Post Office to be dealt with as registered. No additional registration fee will be charged.

Registered correspondence is subject to the same rules as ordinary correspondence as regards additional postage charges for re-direction.

Private Boxes and Bags.

A Private Box, into which, according to the fee paid, (a) all letters and postal packets other than parcels or (b) parcels only, or (c) letters and postal packets, including parcels, on hand for the renter will, except on Sundays, be sorted to be fetched by him, may be rented at the Post Office from which the delivery for the renter's house is made. A Private Bag, to be fetched by messenger from a Post Office in a town district, or in a rural district to be either fetched by messenger or delivered at the renter's house by a Post Office servant, can also be rented at any such Post Office, and into it, according to the fee paid, as in respect of Boxes, either letters or parcels or both letters and parcels on hand for the renter will be sorted. A Private Bag is locked at the Post Office before being sent out for delivery. It may be used also for posting. The bag, which must be provided with a lock, is not supplied by the Post Office.

Application for these facilities should be made through the Head Postmaster of the District, to whom all fees should be paid.

The minimum period for the use of a Private Box or Bag is twelve months, and the fees are payable annually in advance from the date on which the use of the box or bag began.

Town Districts.

The charge for a Private Box is as follows:—

I. At any Delivery Office in London, at any Provincial Head, Branch or District Office which is a Delivery Office, and at any salaried Sub-Office .. £3, 10s. 0d. a year.
II. At any other Sub-Office £2 0s. 0d. a year.

If delivery is desired at or after 6 a.m. and before the time of commencement of the first delivery or the hour of opening the office (whichever is earlier), a double fee is payable. If delivery is desired after the public office is closed at night (or after 9 p.m. at any office open after that hour) or before 6 a.m. a Night Box must be rented. The rent for a Night Box is double that for an ordinary Day Box, and is in addition to the ordinary fee for a Day Box when such is used.

The charge for a Private Bag (which must be conveyed by the renter or his agent to and from the Post Office) is 30s. a year, irrespective of its weight or the number of times at which it is made up daily. An additional fee of £1 a year is charged for each key beyond the first kept at a Post Office. Except when the Bag is used only for the posting of letters, the fee for a Private Box as well as for a Private Bag must be paid.

A Private Box or Bag may be used either for letters or for parcels, but if used for both letters and parcels a double fee is payable.

Forms of Application for Widows' and Old Age Pensions and certain other forms relative to Pensions and Allowances are kept in stock at Post Offices.

In Scotland and Northern Ireland, Inland Revenue and Fee Stamps are stocked only at certain offices specially authorised to sell them.

The hours of sale of Inland Revenue and Fee Stamps are generally 10 a.m. to 5 p.m., but are extended to meet public requirements in certain towns. An application made outside the regular hours for stamps which are urgently needed is complied with if possible. As regards allowance for unused or Spoiled Stamps see Post Office Guide under heading Miscellaneous Regulations as to Stamps.

Stamping of Documents, etc.—Executed (i.e. signed) and unexecuted documents, and blank forms, to be impressed with Inland Revenue Stamps, may be left at any Head or Branch Office or Money Order Sub-Office at which documents are regularly received for the purpose, for transmission to the appropriate Stamping Office. The above rates do not apply to Orders issued for payment in Eire. On such Orders inland poundage is chargeable.

The issuing postmaster will hand to the remitter either—

1. A Money Order to be forwarded by post to the payee for presentation at office of payment; or,
2. A certificate of issue, in which case payment will be made by means of an order which will be issued by the postal administration abroad.

For full particulars, see P.O. Guide.

POSTAL ORDERS.

Postal Orders are issued and paid at all post offices throughout the United Kingdom.

The following are the amounts for which Postal Orders are issued, together with the poundage payable in respect of each order:—

6d. up to 2s. 6d.	1d. each.
3s. „ 15s.	1½d. „
15s. 6d. „ 21s.	2d. „

Broken amounts whether the Order is made payable in the United Kingdom or elsewhere, may be made up by affixing postage stamps not exceeding 5d., and not exceeding two in number, to the face of the Order.

The person to whom a Postal Order is issued must, before parting with it, fill in the name of the person to whom the amount is to be paid, and is recommended to fill in the name of the office of payment as a precaution in case the Order should be lost or stolen. The person so named must, before payment can be made, sign the receipt at the foot of the Order, and must also fill in the name of the Money Order Office, if that has not been already done.

Every person obtaining a Postal Order should tear off and retain the counterfoil. Its production will facilitate inquiry if Order should be lost.

If a Postal Order be crossed, payment will only be made through a banker; and if the name of a banker is added, payment will only be made through that banker.

POST OFFICE SAVINGS BANK.

The Post Office acts as a Bank for Savings throughout the United Kingdom (including the Channel Islands and the Isle of Man).

In every town and in almost every village deposits may be made at the Post Office. The money will be held in safety by the Government, will earn interest, and, when required, may be drawn out again through the local Post Office wherever the owner may be.

Interest at the rate of £2, 10s. per cent. per annum or 6d. a year is allowed on every complete pound.

Special facilities are also afforded through the Post Office Savings Bank for making investments in Government Stock and for purchasing Annuities.

For full particulars apply at any Post Office.

The charges for Trunk calls from places in Great Britain and Northern Ireland to the Irish Free State are (subject to the additional 'cable' charges mentioned) as follows:—

When a call is made from a Call Office a Call Office charge is made in addition. In the case of calls for distances up to 35 miles, this charge is 2d. in respect of each 3 minutes' conversation in the daytime (5 a.m. to 7 p.m.) and each 6 minutes' conversation at night (7 p.m. to 5 a.m.). For calls over 35 miles, the Call Office charge is proportional to the number of minutes used, subject to a minimum of 2d. for the first 3 minutes.

The minimum charge covers a period of conversation of 3 minutes, commencing from the time when the caller or subscriber has been informed that the connexion is completed; but any caller, by prepaying the appropriate charge, may secure the option of extending a call beyond 3 minutes.

When the option of extending a call has been asked for by a caller, and the call is completed within the full period for which the charge has been deposited, the charge for the unused period will be refunded (subject to the minimum charge as for 3 minutes).

Personal Call Service.

Calls for a specified person can be booked on payment of a small additional charge. The caller may, if he wishes, specify (instead of a person), a business or an unnamed official or the reference code from business correspondence, e.g. 'AB/C 1234.' He may also, if he wishes, name a substitute for the person wanted or alternatively may give the numbers of two telephone stations in the same locality where the person wanted may be found, e.g., at his office or his home. A personal call will be connected only when the person required (or a substitute acceptable to the caller) is ready to speak at the distant end. If the required person cannot be obtained at first, the caller will be informed of the position and may either tell his exchange to leave his call for completion later after further efforts have been made to find the person wanted, or cancel the call. If a personal call is cancelled before the person required is found, or if it cannot be completed owing to the absence of the person required or to inability to trace him, only the additional charge (known as the 'personal' charge) will be payable.

Note.—In the afternoon and evening this charge is only 6d. (See below.) If the originator of a call after being advised that the wanted person is not available asks to speak to anyone at the distant station, the 'personal' charge and the normal appropriate call charge would be payable.

The additional charges for personal calls, which are the same whatever the duration of the call, are :—

9 a.m.–2 p.m.	2. p.m.–9 a.m.
1s. 0d.	0s. 6d.

Facilities are offered to telephone subscribers and to callers at Attended Call Offices for booking Trunk Calls to be effected at or about a specified time, subject to prior notice and the payment of a special charge.

Use of Telephone for sending Express, Air Mail and Ordinary Letters.

A subscriber may telephone messages to many post offices to be written down and dealt with as express, air mail or ordinary letters. Similarly the public may dictate such letters from many Telephone Call Offices where Trunk Calls are accepted.

TELEPHONE SERVICE WITH SHIPS AT SEA.

Atlantic Direct Service.

The service is available daily, except Sundays from 12 noon to 8 p.m., but the periods of communication with any individual ship vary with the ship's position. Calls may be booked at any time for completion during the hours of service.

'Limited Duration' calls are available. See P.O. Guide.

POST OFFICE TELEGRAPHS.

The charge for telegrams throughout the United Kingdom is 6d. for nine words (in Eire, 1s. 6d. for twelve words), including the address, and 1d. for each additional word.

Telegrams handed in on SUNDAY will be charged 6d. extra.

Multiple Address Telegrams.

A telegram will be delivered at two or more addresses in the same free delivery on prepayment of the ordinary telegram charge for the total number of words in the addresses and text in addition to a charge of fourpence for every copy beyond the first. Each address must be complete in itself.

Mode of Delivery and Porterage Charges.

Telegrams are delivered free of charge within three miles (one mile in Eire) of the Delivery Office nearest the address, which is called the Terminal Office; and when that office is a Head Post Office no charge is made for delivery within the town postal delivery area, even if that extends beyond the ordinary limits of free delivery.

When the address is beyond the limit of free delivery, porterage is charged at the rate of 6d. a mile or part of a mile, the distance being calculated from the limit of free delivery.

When the usual delivering office is closed, telegrams may at the request of the sender be delivered from another office; but a porterage charge of 6d. a mile, calculated from the door of the delivering office, must be prepaid unless the address is within the town postal delivery of that office.

The sender is liable for porterage charges on telegrams other than those for places in Eire; and, when the address is not within the free delivery, he must, if he can, state the distance and pay the porterage in advance. When the exact distance is not known a deposit must be paid. The list of Post Offices gives the approximate distances of Post Offices more than three miles from an office from which telegrams are delivered. This information will furnish some guide in computing porterage charges. Should the sender under-estimate the charge, the deficiency is collected on delivery, and should he paid too much, the excess is refunded. Porterage is not prepayable in respect of telegrams for Eire.

Prepayment of Replies.

The cost of a reply, not exceeding 51 words, may be prepaid. The charge for the reply is at the ordinary telegraph rate, and the minimum charfe is 6d. for 9 words (Eire, 1s. 6d. for 12 words).

(The charges on telegrams from Eire to the United Kingdom are the same as those on telegrams in the reverse direction.)

A Reply Form will then be delivered to the addressee, who will be at liberty to use it for any inland message (including Night Telegraph Letters) at any time within twelve months. If the Form be not used, its value will be refunded from Headquarters to the sender of the original telegram if he applies and sends the Form within twelve months to the local Postmaster. When a reply-paid telegram is delivered by telephone and a reply is dictated at once the Form is used in payment for the reply; but if a reply is not so sent the Form is posted with the confirmatory copy of the telegram, and it may be used in part payment of the subscriber's telephone account.

By ringing up 'Telegrams,' telegraph messages may be sent direct to the Telegraph Room at the G.P.O. for onward transmission.

NIGHT TELEGRAPH LETTER SERVICE.

Night Telegraph Letters may be sent to addresses in Great Britain or Northern Ireland, and to the following towns in Eire, viz., Cóbh (or Queenstown), Cork, and Dublin.

They may be accepted at any time up to midnight by telephone, or at any post office which is open. If handed in at a post office, the messages should be written on an ordinary telegram form and the words 'Telegraph Letter' should be inserted immediately before the name of the addressee. No charge is made for the words 'Telegraph Letter.'

They will be delivered on the next week-day, either by the first postal delivery, or by special messenger shortly afterwards.

The rate is 1s. (1s. 6d. for an address in Eire) for 36 words or less, and 1d. for every 3 words beyond 36. A night telegraph letter may be sent reply-paid, and its recipient may use the reply voucher either for a night telegraph letter or for an ordinary telegram.

The message must be in plain language, and must bear a full postal address. Registered abbreviated addresses and telephonic addresses are not admissible.

A Night Telegraph Letter will be delivered at two or more addresses all in the same place or free delivery on prepayment of the ordinary Night Telegraph Letter charges for the total number of words in the addresses and text in addition to a charge of fourpence for every copy beyond the first. Each address must be complete in itself. The whole of London will for this purpose be regarded as within the same free delivery.

INLAND CASH ON DELIVERY SERVICE.

Letter Post and Parcel Post.—The value of an article sent by Registered Letter Post or by Registered or Unregistered Parcel Post can, on certain conditions, be collected from the addressee by the Post Office and remitted to the sender by means of a Special Order. (The service is also applicable, with certain limitations set forth below, to consignments conveyed by Railway.) A parcel need not be registered, but may be registered if desired; all packets sent by Letter Post must, however, be registered.

Packets or parcels may be posted at any Money Order Post Office for delivery at any address in the United Kingdom, including the Channel Islands and the Isle of Man. The service does not apply to Eire in either direction.

The amount to be collected on delivery, called the Trade Charge, must not exceed £40 and must not contain a fractional part of 1d.

A C.O.D. packet or parcel is normally delivered by postman against payment of the Trade Charge. If, however, the Trade Charge exceeds £10, the packet or parcel is kept at the Post Office and notice of its arrival is sent to the addressee; and the addressee is required to pay the Trade Charge at the Post Office, when the packet or parcel will be handed over, or subsequently delivered by postman. Post Office servants are strictly forbidden to give up a C.O.D. packet or parcel, or to open it at the request of the addressee, or to allow the addressee to open it, until the Trade Charge and any other charges due have been paid. No receipt is given for a Trade Charge. A Trade Charge, once collected, is in no circumstances refunded to the Addressee.

The C.O.D. fees, which are additional to the ordinary parcel postage, and the Registration Fee, are as follows:—

Trade Charge not exceeding	Fee.
10s.	4d.
£1	6d.
£2	8d.
£5	10d.
£10	1s.

and 2d. for each additional £5 or fraction of £5 up to the maximum of £40.

The sender must write in ink on the cover of the packet or parcel:—

(1) The name and address of the addressee;
(2) His own name and address;
(3) The amount of the Trade Charge;

and to fill up in ink the special Trade Charge Form which will be handed to him.

The stamp or stamps in prepayment of the Cash on Delivery fee must be affixed to the counterfoil of the Trade Charge Form in the space provided.

A certificate of posting will be given for registered packets and parcels and, if desired, for unregistered parcels, as in the case of an ordinary parcel. The letters 'C.O.D.' should be written by the counter officer in front of the address on the certificate and the sender should satisfy himself that this has been done before accepting the certificate.

The Trade Charge will be remitted to the sender of the parcel by means of a 'crossed' Order. This Order will not be negotiable; but special arrangements are made to meet the convenience of payees who have no banking-account.

The regulations which govern the payment of compensation for the loss or damage of a Cash on Delivery packet or parcel are the same as those prescribed for packets and parcels not sent by the Cash on Delivery services. The maximum limit of compensation for the loss or damage of an unregistered Cash on Delivery parcel is therefore £3. The amount of compensation paid for the loss or damage of registered packets and parcels, including those sent under the Cash on Delivery system, is determined by the amount of the registration fee paid (see P.O. Guide). When application is made respecting a Cash on Delivery packet or parcel or the payment of a Trade Charge, the number of the relative Trade Charge Form should always be quoted.

APPLICATION OF C.O.D. SYSTEM TO CONSIGNMENTS CONVEYED BY RAILWAY.

Arrangements have been made with the Railway Companies for extending the C.O.D. service to consignments despatched by railway. A person wishing to send a consignment by rail under the system must obtain from a Money Order Post Office a Combined Address Label and Receipt Form for each article or package to be sent. If a truckload of goods is sent by one sender to one consignee two forms only are necessary, one for each side of the truck. This Form, which is supplied free of charge, consists of a double address label, and a detachable receipt. The appropriate particulars must be entered in the address and receipt portions of the Form by the sender. The address portion must be detached and securely affixed to the article or package (except in the case of truckloads). The sender must hand the article or package to the Railway Company against a signature or stamp on the receipt portion. The receipt portion must then be despatched immediately by the sender to the consignee as a C.O.D. registered letter: it is advisable to write above the top left-hand corner of the address, preferably in Red ink, the words 'Railway Receipt.' The C.O.D. letter will be delivered to the consignee on payment of the Trade Charge, and the consignee must surrender the receipt to the Railway Parcels or Goods Agent to whom the consignment is directed, to obtain possession of it.

Further particulars may be obtained on application at any Money Order Post Office.

LOZENGES

The modern Supplementing Vitamin Tonic

These lozenges combine, in correct therapeutic proportions, and their most easily assimilated form:

IRON with its blood-enriching properties, in a similar form to that known as "CHEMICAL FOOD,"

YEAST with its restorative properties and supply of Vitamin B,

PHOSPHORUS with its well-known brain and nerve strengthening properties,

MALT with its diastatic and digestive properties; and

HALIBUT LIVER OIL, with the body-building properties of its abundant Vitamin A especially reinforced with extra Vitamin D. This Oil is biologically tested for Vitamin content, and each "Korsana" lozenge is approximately equivalent in Vitamins A and D to one teaspoonful of genuine pure Cod Liver Oil.

NUTRITIVE — TONIC — REVITALISING

Suitable for Children and Adults

A full month's course is contained in the regular 3/- size

Small size 1/9, Trial size 1/, from your Chemist.
